NEWS

Think outside the salon

Collection 2019 NEW YORK NEW YORK

The new collection presented at the last edition of Cosmoprof was an extraordinary success: questions, curiosity, innovation.

The design of this collection goes way beyond an excellence of an exercise in style, and is rather the translation of a richly intuitive thought into a concrete range that brings life and soul to different ways of living the salon.

Deliciously charming settings with an industrial appeal yet packed with unexpected features. An innovative aesthetic language expressed in the choice of materials.

We work together towards a common vision

The experimentation of new forms of communication, the speed with which it enters new channels with simple, effective ideas, the ability to adapt to the winds of fashion and the flexibility of penetrating emerging niche markets are part of BEAUTY-STAR's DNA.

All this without ever betraying its craft origins, the pleasure of design, the sophistication of its technological choices.

The company has always been committed to seeking new technical, production and sales solutions to create furnishing products and complemented made in Italy offering excellent value in terms of design, quality and price.

With UKI hair products, designed for use in salons as well as at home, it is extremely easy to obtain professional results.

Young, dynamic, innovative: the UKI image has allowed the brand, in just a few years from its launch, to reach a very high level of reputation, thanks also to the great efforts made in terms of communication which has produced UKI advertising in the major Italian and foreign sectoral press.

Who doesn't dream of having a fantastic look for any occasion!
